Has much to do with health and comfort and is no small factor in prosperity. New Mexico not only has the finest climate in America, but she also raises the best apples "In the New Land of the Big Red Apple," the Pecos Valley.

Here they have not only the climate but the "Market," which is the all important thing in fruit culture.

Let us demonstrate the truth of this assertion, especially as applies to the Beautiful South Springs Orchard.

If you are looking for big returns on a moderate investment, this will interest you for the price is low and terms easy.

NEW FUND BEING RAISED TO HELP THE BELGIANS

Prominent American Women of Wealth Are Patronesses of Movement to Give Aid to Starving People.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
New York, Dec. 18.—A new fund in the interests of the distressed people of Belgium, to be known as the "Belgian Relief Fund," is announced by a committee which includes a number of prominent American women, who have been stirred to the fact that the suffering in Belgium is appalling among hundreds of thousands of families bereft of wealth and to educational and charitable organizations whose work is being abandoned or curtailed because many of their formerly wealthy Belgian patrons are unable to render their usual aid.

The committee of patronesses includes Mrs. Geraldine Barker, Mrs. C. H. K. Williams, Mrs. Joseph H. Choate, Mrs. Eugene Gould, Mrs. E. B. Harriman, Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Mrs. J. E. Morgan, and a number of other well-known women. Headquarters have been established at the Belgian bureau, 10 Bridge street, New York, where the work will be directed.

The announcement says the fund will be formed under auspices of the Belgian minister at Washington, Emmanuel Delys, the Belgian minister of state, Louis de Sadeur, who is in New York, and the Belgian consul general at New York, Pierre Mah. The committee's statement reads in part as follows:

Millions in Poverty.

"From many authoritative sources we learn constantly of the extremely miserable conditions of Belgium. Millions of men, women and children are in deepest poverty. Hundreds of thousands of families heretofore wealthy or at least in comfortable circumstances have lost everything. Included among these are owners of destroyed or idle factories and stores, business men, professors, teachers and artists. Many of them have generally contributed of their own money to their less fortunate countrymen, but, owing to the long duration of the war, they are now, in their turn, compelled to ask assistance. And besides these individuals many most popular institutions, charitable organizations, orphan asylums, day nurseries and societies for the protection of young girls, which rendered immense services, are at present powerless to render their usual services for lack of maintenance.

"From such institutions, organizations and individuals without number, desperate appeals reach Cardinal Mercier every day, because he is the principal figure in authority now remaining in Belgium, to whom the suffering people can confidently appeal for aid."

COUNTERFEITERS GIVEN HOT ROAST AND TWO YEARS

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
San Francisco, Dec. 18.—Two convicted counterfeiters in whose possession were found alleged derivative posters reading, "do not drive copper nails or tacks in fruit trees, or grapevines, it hurts them!" while Ford and Sahr are in jail, were told today by Judge Maurice T. Dowling in the United States district court that "one good fruit tree was more valuable to California than any man or set of men who attempted to destroy them."

Judge Dowling then sentenced the two, Mrs. Jean Bennett and Clarence Parlin of Portland, Ore., to two years each in San Quentin penitentiary. Both were said by federal authorities to have taken part in riots by Industrial Workers of the World at Portland.

Claude Lawless of Sacramento, tried with the two, was given a life sentence.

Governor Issues Proclamation.
Governor Hiram W. Johnson issued a proclamation some time ago describing what he said was an organized industrial workers' campaign for the destruction of property, and referred to the distribution of the posters as part of it.

Mrs. Bennett admitted the posters were found in her room but said she did not know how they got there.

Herman Ford and Richard Sahr are serving penitentiary terms for murder in the Wheatland hop riots of 1913 in which four men were killed. Governor Johnson refused to intervene in their behalf.

STATE MUSEUM NOTES

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO MORNING JOURNAL)
Santa Fe, Dec. 18.—"The Yale Collection of Fossil Horses" by Richard Swann Lull, Ph. D., is the title of an illustrated monograph received by the museum library today. It includes a description of the expedition to the stacked plains for the fossil remains of prehistoric horses in the southwest.

The Museum of New Mexico this year drew the modest sum of $1,454.56 from the state treasury of its $10,000 appropriation, and returned therefor to the state property worth three times as much, not to speak about permanent improvements paid for out of the above sum. Other state institutions drew much more generously, the state university $78,508.14, the penitentiary $72,427.42, the insane asylum $59,693.07, the Normal univer-

BIG RED APPLES IN FINE DISPLAY ON SOUTH SECOND

J. F. Cleveland, Sales Manager
South Springs Orchard, Puts Together a Most Unique Exhibit.

One of the most attractive and surely the most complete Christmas window in Albuquerque is that of the South Springs Orchard at 115 South Second street and looking from the window of the passersby are not alone in the opinion. In the center of the window is a large wreath representing a holy wreath but instead of the holy berries, the big red apples from the Pecos valley adorn the wreath. In the background of the wreath is a picture of the Christ child lying in the manger.

Other side, a horse of plenty has scattered apples broadcast in token of the prosperity held out by "The New Land of the Big Red Apple." Another attractive feature is a picture representing Adam accepting the first apple from Eve. It is all worth while and hard to leave. Many have for some time been attracted to the beautiful window displays of this company and the method of displaying their advertising, all of which have been delayed out of their track in New Mexico and yet possibilities still exist of a P. Cleveland the most notable.

HONOR

More so than any other merchandise, Clothing is sold on honor. For the average man, clothing is mainly a necessity. He knows nothing of it, when appraisement of value is asked for. Most men will say so.

Hence it is that a seller of clothes must not only KNOW his merchandise, but buy for himself and consumer at the same time.

For more than a generation—thirty years to be exact—we have held to the principle of crowding into our Clothes every ounce of value possible.

While others have been content to "talk" value, we have gone out in front and GUARANTEED it.

No need of hesitation in our store. We get a bad one occasionally, yes.

Sometimes several in a row.

But we always make them good to the consumer no matter where we "get off."

Our principle has been—and is—that YOU must be satisfied before the transaction is considered closed.

We offer a safe and sane place to trade; a store with low "overhead expense"; a store with personal service to each customer; a store where you can bring it back if it is not right.

That is worth something.

No matter what your knowledge of clothing may be, we protect you two ways:

First, by selling you Kuppenheimer or Stein-Bloch garments.

Secondly, by making it good if it is not right.
